Week: 15 Apr to 19 Apr 2024

This week...

Obsidian

Obsidian have had an amazing first week back – refreshed from the break and ready to learn! This week we have been looking at measure, using a ruler to accurately measure 3D and 2D objects. Our first challenge was to have a go at observational drawing, some of our learners found this a bit tricky but we all know 'it's ok to make mistakes!'

They have also been joining their peers across the school, all joining UBC and celebrating the year 2 quest. A fantastic first week back – well done learners!

Year 1

What a great start back! The children have been doing some fantastic learning. In Maths, we have been learning how to use arrays. In English, the children have been editing an extended piece of writing. In History, we have learning about how schools were different in the past. We have also been lucky enough to join in with Year 3's quest. They had made phonics fishing games and came to play them with the Year 1 children. We are looking forward to completing our own quest in the next few days.

Year 3

Year 3 have had a fantastic week questing! They have been designing an engaging phonics game to help younger learners with their phonics. They put their English, Science and Design and Technology learning to the test as they wrote instructions for the game. They designed fun and engaging phonics cards and accurately sawed and measured wooden dowels. On Wednesday, we went down to year one to play the game with our younger learners. The year 3 children were excellent role models and commented on how impressive the year 1's phonics knowledge was.

Elsewhere, we have made a start on learning how to tell the time in Maths and have started our new quest 'In the Palm of Your Hand,' which we are all excited about!
